

To Whom It May Concern:

As an XM Satellite Radio subscriber, I feel that the services of traffic and weather channels are very beneficial because my family travels frequently. The channels that are offered can not be found through another service. This is not a free service but pay for by each individual. Please reject the NAB's petition 04-160.